Newsletter - December 2018

NEW BALANCE - 100 GUEST STREET

Scheduling was the key to success with this door project. New Balance needed vision kits cut into 12 door leafs. The trick to this project is removing 6 doors per day, transporting them to the factory (so as to ensure their fire rating after cutting into them), returning them and re-installing them same day.

Fortunately, teamwork paid off and the project got done without a hitch.

HARVARD UNIVERSITY REAL ESTATE - TROWBRIDGE STREET

This project required a little bit of everything. The client needed some year end polish and hired RM Cochran to repair a series of doors, paint and create some closet shelving areas.

HALLKEEN - 15-25 HEMENWAY STREET

This apartment complex in the Fenway District needed its chimneys parged and resealed.
